NATIONAL EDUCATOR TO BE KEYNOTE SPEAKER

DAYTON, Ohio, June 12, 1970 --- Rev. C. Albert Koob, executive secretary of the National Catholic Educational Association will be keynote speaker when the summer workshop program of the School of Education opens at U.D. on Monday, June 22.

Dr. Koob will speak on "New Trends in Catholic Education" in the auditorium of Miriam Hall (room 119) at 7:30 p.m. All are invited to attend. His lecture and two other evening talks are open to the public.

Other evening lectures open to all interested persons without charge are the following:

Designing the Educational Future of Our Schools by Bro. Anthony E. Wallace, F.S.C., Ph.D. (Tuesday, June 30, Miriam Hall 119, 7:30 p.m.)

Newer Insights into Academic Freedom by Rev. William J. Ferree, S.M., Ph.D. (Thursday, July 2, Miriam Hall 119, 7:30 p.m.)

The three evening lectures are part of the daily workshops on "New Issues and Trends in Catholic Education" to be conducted from June 22 to July 3.

Directed by Brother Louis Faerber, S.M., Ph.D., this workshop is one of ten to be offered by the School of Education this summer.

Others are: Reading in the elementary school; Guidance in the elementary school; Perceptual motor learning; Practicum in science instruction (outdoor education at Glen Helen, Yellow Springs); Religion in the elementary school; Learning disabilities; Business systems and data processing; Micro-teaching in Mathematics; and Creativity in the elementary school.

A brochure giving complete information on all ten is available from the Dean's Office, School of Education, Chaminade Hall.
